Title of Website: ____________________  URL: http:// ______________________________

1. When was the page created?

   When was the most recent update?

2. Who is responsible for creating/maintaining the page? _____________________________

   ____________________________________________________________

   What are his/her credentials? ____________________________________

   ____________________________________________________________

   The author is associated with:

   □ K-12 school      □ University      □ Government Agency      □ Organization      □ Company

   □ Other:

   Name of association: __________________________________________

3. Does the information appear to be accurate?  □ Yes   □ No

4. Is there a bias (author’s feelings about the topic are obvious)?  □ Yes   □ No

   Please describe. __________________________________________________________________________

5. Are there links to other sites?  □ Yes   □ No

   Are those links useful/up to date?  □ Yes   □ No

6. After thinking about the above questions, consider whether this web site would be truly useful to your project. Explain why here.

   ________________________________________________________________________________________

   ________________________________________________________________________________________